- 37.2 Three residents attended the meeting to discuss the on-going issues of motorbikes being ridden on the foreshore and through Long Plantation Wood. PCSO Steve Lynch and Sergeant Helen McGill also attended to support this discussion.
It was explained to the Council that a meeting had already taken place at one residents house which PCSO Steve Lynch had attended. Since then, there have been increased patrols and several motorbikes riders have been spoken to. PCSO Lynch also explained that the police have no jurisdiction on private land, however he has had a constructive meeting with St Modwen who currently hold the lease for Long Plantation and they are prepared to work with the Police to improve the situation. Sergeant McGill explained that PCSO Lynch had worked in other areas to successfully reduce the motorbike activity.
The first action will be for PCSO Lynch to identify all land owners and the status of all routes in the area. A meeting can then be organised to discuss the possible solutions available.
